The resident labor force in Clackamas County has fallen in most months since June.

- The number of people in the labor force in Clackamas County and Oregon who are working or looking for work has been shrinking since the COVID pandemic.

- In September, the number of Clackamas County residents in the labor force dropped by -10,848 or by -4.8 percent since June.

Monthly sales were up by 230 or by 40.8 percent from August to September. The average annual number of monthly sales has risen from 339 in 2011 to 584 in 2020 (Jan-Sep) in Clackamas County.

The median sales price of houses in Clackamas County has increased by $4,550 or by 1 percent from a month ago. Over the last year, the median sales price increased by $45,000 or 10.3 percent.