Oregon Indian Tribal Government Employment, 2010-2019

Source: Oregon Employment Department

In 1995, when Indian tribal employment was first classified as local government, the sector averaged 3,200 jobs. The sector climbed to a peak of 8,800 jobs in 2012. As of 2019, the sector stands at around 8,300 jobs. Casino and resort, in the amusement, gambling, and recreation sector, accounted for roughly 60 percent of tribal employment in 2019. Public administration represented 31 percent of all employment. Another 12 percent of Indian tribal jobs were found in other industries including agriculture, utilities, construction, manufacturing, and retail trade.
