

Consider a Career in

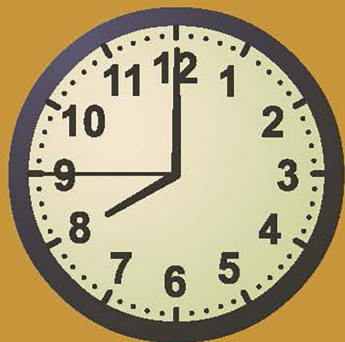

Social SCIENCE

Social Scientists
study the behavior
and relationships
of people
in society

Economists – Sociologists – Psychologists – Market Research Analysts
– Geographers – Anthropologists and Archaeologists
– Urban and Regional Planners

What do Social Scientists have to say about their work?

“I love research. I love learning new things. We’re learning new things all the time that are very important to humankind.”

-Ann Dapice, Director of Education and Research*

Do you enjoy...

Analyzing information

Study how social relationships affect people's lives over time and space

With a career in Social Science you could...

*Interested in working with a variety of organizations?
Social Scientists
can work for:*

Social Science is in demand.

Employment is expected to grow, with hundreds of new jobs being added over the next few years.

MYTH Social Science is not a truly scientific field.

REALITY Like any other scientific field, SOCIAL SCIENCE relies on observation and experimentation to identify, test, and solve problems related to human behavior.

Useful classes to prepare for college...

| |
|------------------------|
| Anthropology |
| Economics |
| Political Science |
| Statistics |
| Psychology |
| Sociology |
| U.S. and World History |

After high school, here's the education you'll need to succeed:

The minimum education needed to work in social science is a bachelor's degree. More job opportunities will be available to those who get a master's degree or PhD.

Starting Salaries
begin around

$40,000-$60,000
per year,

up to $85,000
or MORE with several years experience.

Social Scientists change our lives and the world for the better

They...

Help organizations plan and perform research

Observe human behavior to understand how people interact

Investigate social issues to help reduce poverty and crime

Study ancient or foreign cultures and learn how they function

Learn more about Social Science

- Read the newspaper and learn more about current events
- Volunteer for community service work
- Join a debate club
- Visit history museums
- Research careers and find college and training program information on QualityInfo.org in the “Jobs & Careers” and “Training & Education” sections

Looking for more information on STEM occupations?

Contact Lmipubs@oregon.gov to order copies of the STEM brochure series, offered for the following occupations:

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--------------------|
| - Biological Science | - Health Care |
| - Computer Information Systems | - Mathematics |
| - Computer Science | - Physical Science |
| - Drafting and Surveying | - Social Science |
| - Engineering | |

You can also view these brochures at QualityInfo.org on the “Publications” page in the Posters & Brochures box.

The Oregon Employment Department is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities. Language assistance is available to persons with limited English proficiency at no cost.

El Departamento de Empleo de Oregon es un programa que respeta la igualdad de oportunidades. Disponemos de servicios o ayudas auxiliares, formatos alternos y asistencia de idiomas para personas con discapacidades o conocimiento limitado del inglés, a pedido y sin costo.